Circular No: 1019

Kampala, 10th June 2015

FUFA/C/005/15

2014 - 15 FUFA UGANDA CUP FINAL SC VILLA VS KCCA FC

The above cup final match took place in Kyamate ground - Ntungamo on Saturday June 6, 2015 but was abandoned due to crowd interference. In accordance with the FUFA Statutes, an emergency FUFA Executive Committee meeting was convened and the following observations and decisions were made;

Observations;

1. The security available failed to control the fans from interfering with the proceeding of the match
2. The environment of the match could not guarantee determination of the winner sportingly
3. There were notable loopholes various parties that contravened the FUFA Competitions Rules
4. The appointment and performance of Match Officials requires a technical assessment
5. A combination of the failure by security to bar the fans from interfering with play, the appointment of the match officials, the assumption of unfairness of the Referee by KCC FC even before kick-off of the match, the performance of the Referee, the conduct of certain players, and the conduct of fans brought the game of football into disrepute.

Subsequent to the above, FUFA has taken the following decisions:-

1. The match will be replayed at Mandela National Stadium on Tuesday 16th June 2015 at 1530hours
2. The parties that contravened the FUFA Competitions Rules as reported in the match Reports shall be advised as provided for in the Rules
